

What we're looking for and what's in it for you

Funding:

You believe that our world is in need of change and also believe, that sustainability begins with each individual and the shared responsibility we all have for a sustainable society? You believe in our work of inspiring and empowering people towards a sustainable lifestyle and want to support us?

You also believe, that us being the global hub, to foster and assist collaborations dedicated to implementing the sustainable development goals for Vision 2040 and the UN's SDGs, will help accelerate transforming our societies and our world?

Great! What's in there for you?

By funding ABLE, you actively participate in the support of the transformation process towards sustainability, starting from the individual, through the city of Stockholm, Sweden and ultimately the world. You'll enABLE us to achieve multiplier effects, by empowering more people, establishing more collaborations and inspiring more people from all over the world to work towards a better society and a better world.

In addition to all of that, you will receive a free family membership, which will allow you and your loved ones to take advantage of all the inspiration, tools and guidance we offer to look think, look and feel better.

Sponsorship:

You also believe that our work is meaningful and contributes to a better society and a better world? You want to support us in continuing our work with leading people to continuous sustainable development and transformation of themselves and our society? Or you want to sponsor our global projects?

Amazing! What's in there for you?

By sponsoring these national and international activities, you will expand the appeal and scope of your brand, reach a broader audience, while gaining access to an extensive network of experts, you can establish collaborations and develop synergies with. Further, we can offer inhouse consulting and inspirational talks within the framework of your organization, providing a holistic concept and ensuring your employee's wellbeing.

Partnership: individuals and organizations of any kind

You are eager to have a positive impact and support the world by providing knowledge, expertise and guidance to the members of our society, who decide to implement the SDGs in their daily business and to take active part in transforming our world?

Awesome! What's in there for you?

Besides taking part in a global movement to change the world, you will further gain access to an extensive network of experts from various fields, as you will be working closely together, depending on the project and it will definitely benefit you personally and professionally.

Experts:

You are a true expert in one or more of these areas: body awareness, mental & emotional wellbeing, leadership & engagement, inspiration, spirituality and beauty awareness and you want to share your message, to inspire people?

Beautiful! What's in there for you?

In addition to transforming lives and our society, as an expert, you will have the opportunity to give inspirational talks and empower people, while having fun. It will further increase your sphere of impact, as you'll gain access to a broader spectrum of clients from different fields and all over the world.
